3. Deputies

Option 1: You remain contractual partner

You have the option of requesting separate login data for the ExhibitorShop for your partner (e.g. stand constructor). This will enable them to order services for your stand area.

This means that your partner orders services for your stand space on your behalf. You will continue to see the orders in your order inventory in the ExhibitorShop.

You will continue to receive the invoice.

Option 2: Your partner becomes contractual partner

This means that your partner commissions the services on your stand area for you. The contract is concluded between NürnbergMesse GmbH and your authorised partner. You, as an exhibitor, will therefore NOT see these orders in your order inventory in the ExhibitorShop.

Invoices are issued directly to your partner.

For this option, please forward the link to request login data to your partner:
https://shops.nuernbergmesse.de/nuem/go/shopzugang-anfordern/pcim26gb_gvsb

4. Different billing addresses

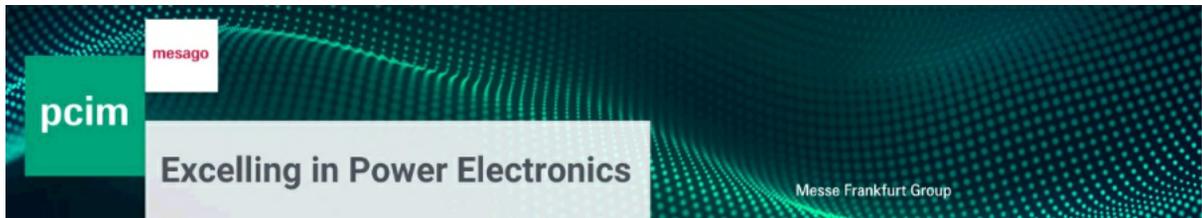

If you require orders in the store to be sent to different billing addresses, different logins must be generated. It is not possible to split the services to different billing addresses in one account.

5. Orders for several exhibition stands

If you have several stands for which you place orders, you must create a new login for each stand, as you can only be assigned to one stand per login. You can create up to 5 logins to the same e-mail address.

If you require more than 5 logins, please contact: order.services@nuernbergmesse.de

Attention: Please remember your login details for each stand! If you use the “Forgot password” function, you must enter your username.
